

PressReader app user guide

iPhone

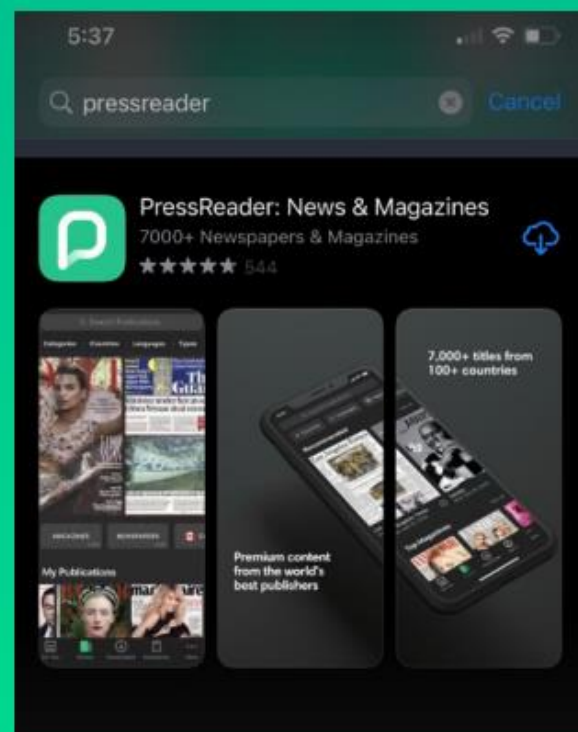

At the Library

Wi-Fi network

1. Connect to library's wifi network

2. Go to App store and download PressReader app

At the Library

Wi-Fi network

3. Launch PressReader app

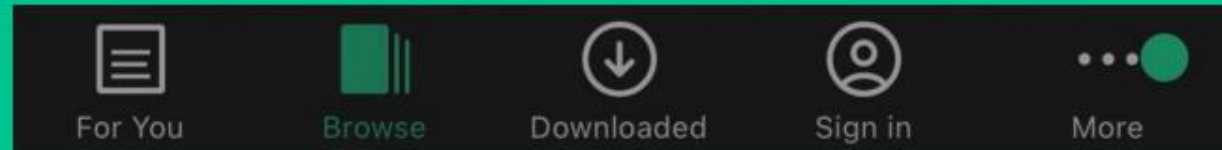

These are options to browse catalog, download publications, sign in with pressreader account, and more.

Welcome message is the first thing you will be greeted with once you connect to library HotSpot.

Find this green tea cup to check if you are authenticated.

Sign in

Sign in or create an account to save stories and interests to your profile

Continue with Apple

Continue with Facebook

Continue with Google

or

Twitter

Email

Libraries & Groups

Sign up

Create an account to save your publications and start free trial

Email address

Password

First name | Last name

Sign up

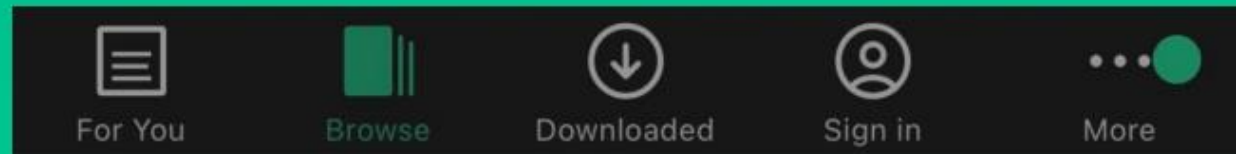

Have an account?

By signing up, I accept the Terms of use and the Privacy policy

4. Sign up for pressreader account

Input email address, create password, key in your first and last name then click Sign up.

If you already have one, click Have an account? and Sign in.

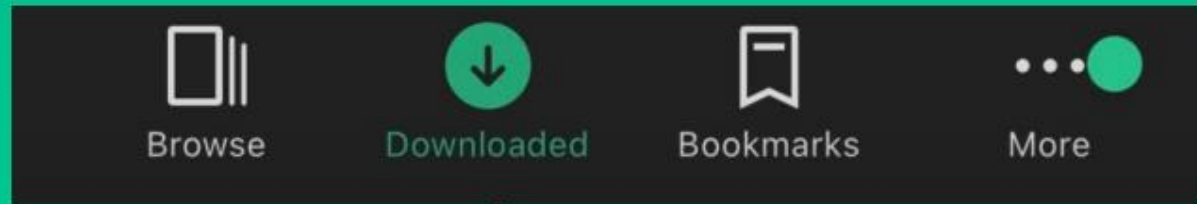

5. Browse catalog

Use the search bar to look for newspaper or magazine then scroll down to check different categories.

6. Download publication

Click this to download publication.

Go to Downloaded to check downloaded publications.

Download complete

